Poesies Pofulaires latines au douzieme siicle, Paris, 1843. 24 Moreover, if, after centuries of quantitative poetry, the Christian hymns became purely accentual by being chanted in the service of the Church, --the singing was at first congregational and only gradually restricted to the priests, --much more would the first primitive chants base their rhythm on the accent of the words. As we have seen, this accent, in the Italic dialects as well...
