James R. Lambdin, Charles Magarqe, Thomas H. Montgomery, and George R. Arnold was appointed, to act with the Rector in providing for a suitable observance of this interesting event. It was subsequently determined by the Committee, to celebrate the occasion by a public service and sermon, with the Holy Communion, to be followed by a social reunion in the Parish Building. The willing aid of the ladies having been called in, due preparations were made, and clerical and lay friends invited to join in the celebration. Remembering that all the Rectors of the Parish for the period of more than half a century were still living, and that they had signified their desire and purpose to be present on this interesting occasion, much pleasure and profit were anticipated by all the members of the congregation. The following account of the services is taken from the Evening Bulletin of the 28th of August: - The venerable Parish of St. Luke s Church in Germantown was the scene of a deeply interesting series of services on Thursday last. The occasion being the celebration of its golden wedding, it having attained its fiftieth year from the date of its consecration by Bishop White. The occasion was one...
