We then put to sea with our train of live stock made fast to the stern. We had not gone far when I heard a loud cry of fear from Fritz, We are lost! We are lost! See what a great shark is on its way to us! Though pale with fright, he took aim with his gun, and shot the fish in the head. It sank at once, but left a track of blood in the water, which I knew to be a sign that we were once more safe. We then got to land, and made fast our freight to the shore. Ere we had done this our friends came to give us what help they could to get the beasts out of the stream, and take them up to the tent. The poor things were well nigh worn out; but we took good care of them, and put them to rest on some dry grass that my wife had laid out for them. That night we did not sleep on the ground. My wife had spread a cloth on the top of a cask, and we each sat on a tub. With the knives and forks that we had found in the ship we ate a dish of hot ham and eggs, nor did we fail to test the wine that I had brought with me in a small cask from the wreck. Ere...
