Maera lives as an outcast by choice. Guilt-ridden over her past, she hopes only for the punishment she deserves. But when a gobelin warrior steps out of thin air to claim her, Maera is torn between the debt she owes her people, and the selfish yearnings of her own heart. Tal is the lowest gobelin, the cursed brother of the hordes greatest warrior. When he stumbles onto a legendary castle, however, he believes his luck is about to change. But the hordes enemies have found the thing as well, and Tals brother breaks gobelin law to chase a human who is more trouble than shes worth. Now Tal and Maera are the only ones who can save his brother, the one person they both love and the only thing they can agree on. If they fail, the horde will never believe them, and the castle of prophecy will fall into enemy hands. If they succeed, theyll have to stand together against the full fury of the gobelin horde.
