Children in Catholic countries generally receive the name of the Saint on whose Festival-Day they are born; and that Saint is ever after honored by them as their especial protector through life. The walls and pillars of Catholic churches are as much covered with votive offerings and tablets as were the ancient temples. The jewels and rich garments thus dedicated could not be easily counted. Ferdinand, king of Spain, embroidered a petticoat for the Virgin with his own royal hands; and so elaborately was it ornamented, that it occupied him several years. Wealthy people who wish to propitiate this Queen of Heaven, or to thank her for some benefit received, often present her with robes and mantles of silk or velvet, richly embroidered, and sometimes adorned with precious...
