Excerpt: .and having a family, to the value of one thousand dollars, will be exempt from sale on execution after the first day of January, 1851, for debts contracted subsequent to the tenth day of April, 1850. This exemption is to continue after the death of the householder, for the benefit of the widow and family, --some, or one of them continuing to occupy such homestead, --until the youngest becomes of age, and until the death of the widow. No release or waiver of such exemption will be valid, unless the same be in writing, subscribed by the householder, and acknowledged in the same manner as conveyances of real estate are required to be acknowledged. 2. To entitle any property to this exemption, the conveyance thereof must show that it is designed to be held as a homestead, or if already purchased, or if the...
