

Showdown in Six-Mile Canyon (Paperback)

By L S Watson Jr

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . It was early spring in 1864. The weather was cold, and a misting rain was falling. I was huddled around a small campfire with eighteen other soldiers. It was suppertime, and we were eating our beans and hardtack. We heard a low boom of cannon, and seconds later, a canister round hit right in the campfire, exploding and spewing deadly fragments everywhere. Oh, that's positively awful, Luke. Did it kill anyone? Josh asked, aghast. Yes. It killed everyone. Or so they thought, Luke spoke slowly, and Josh became puzzled. What do you mean by that, Luke? I don't understand, Josh asked, rubbing his chin. It was the fastest I ever saw a grave-digging detail formed. They dragged the broken, bleeding bodies and put them in a heap, and began to dig. I was in that heap of bodies, more dead than alive. I was still conscious, but in severe shock. I slowly realized that I was about to be buried with those dead soldiers. I mustered all my strength, and shouted as best I could,...
